We, the yearbook staff, are happy to present to you this 1958 "ATEGAN."

In producing this yearbook, we hope you will always have a record, in years to come, of the students and happenings at Otego. We have worked long and hard to produce a yearbook of high quality. We have a feeling of accomplishment and we hope that this feeling will be justified by the pleasure you readers take in it, for it is for you that we published it.

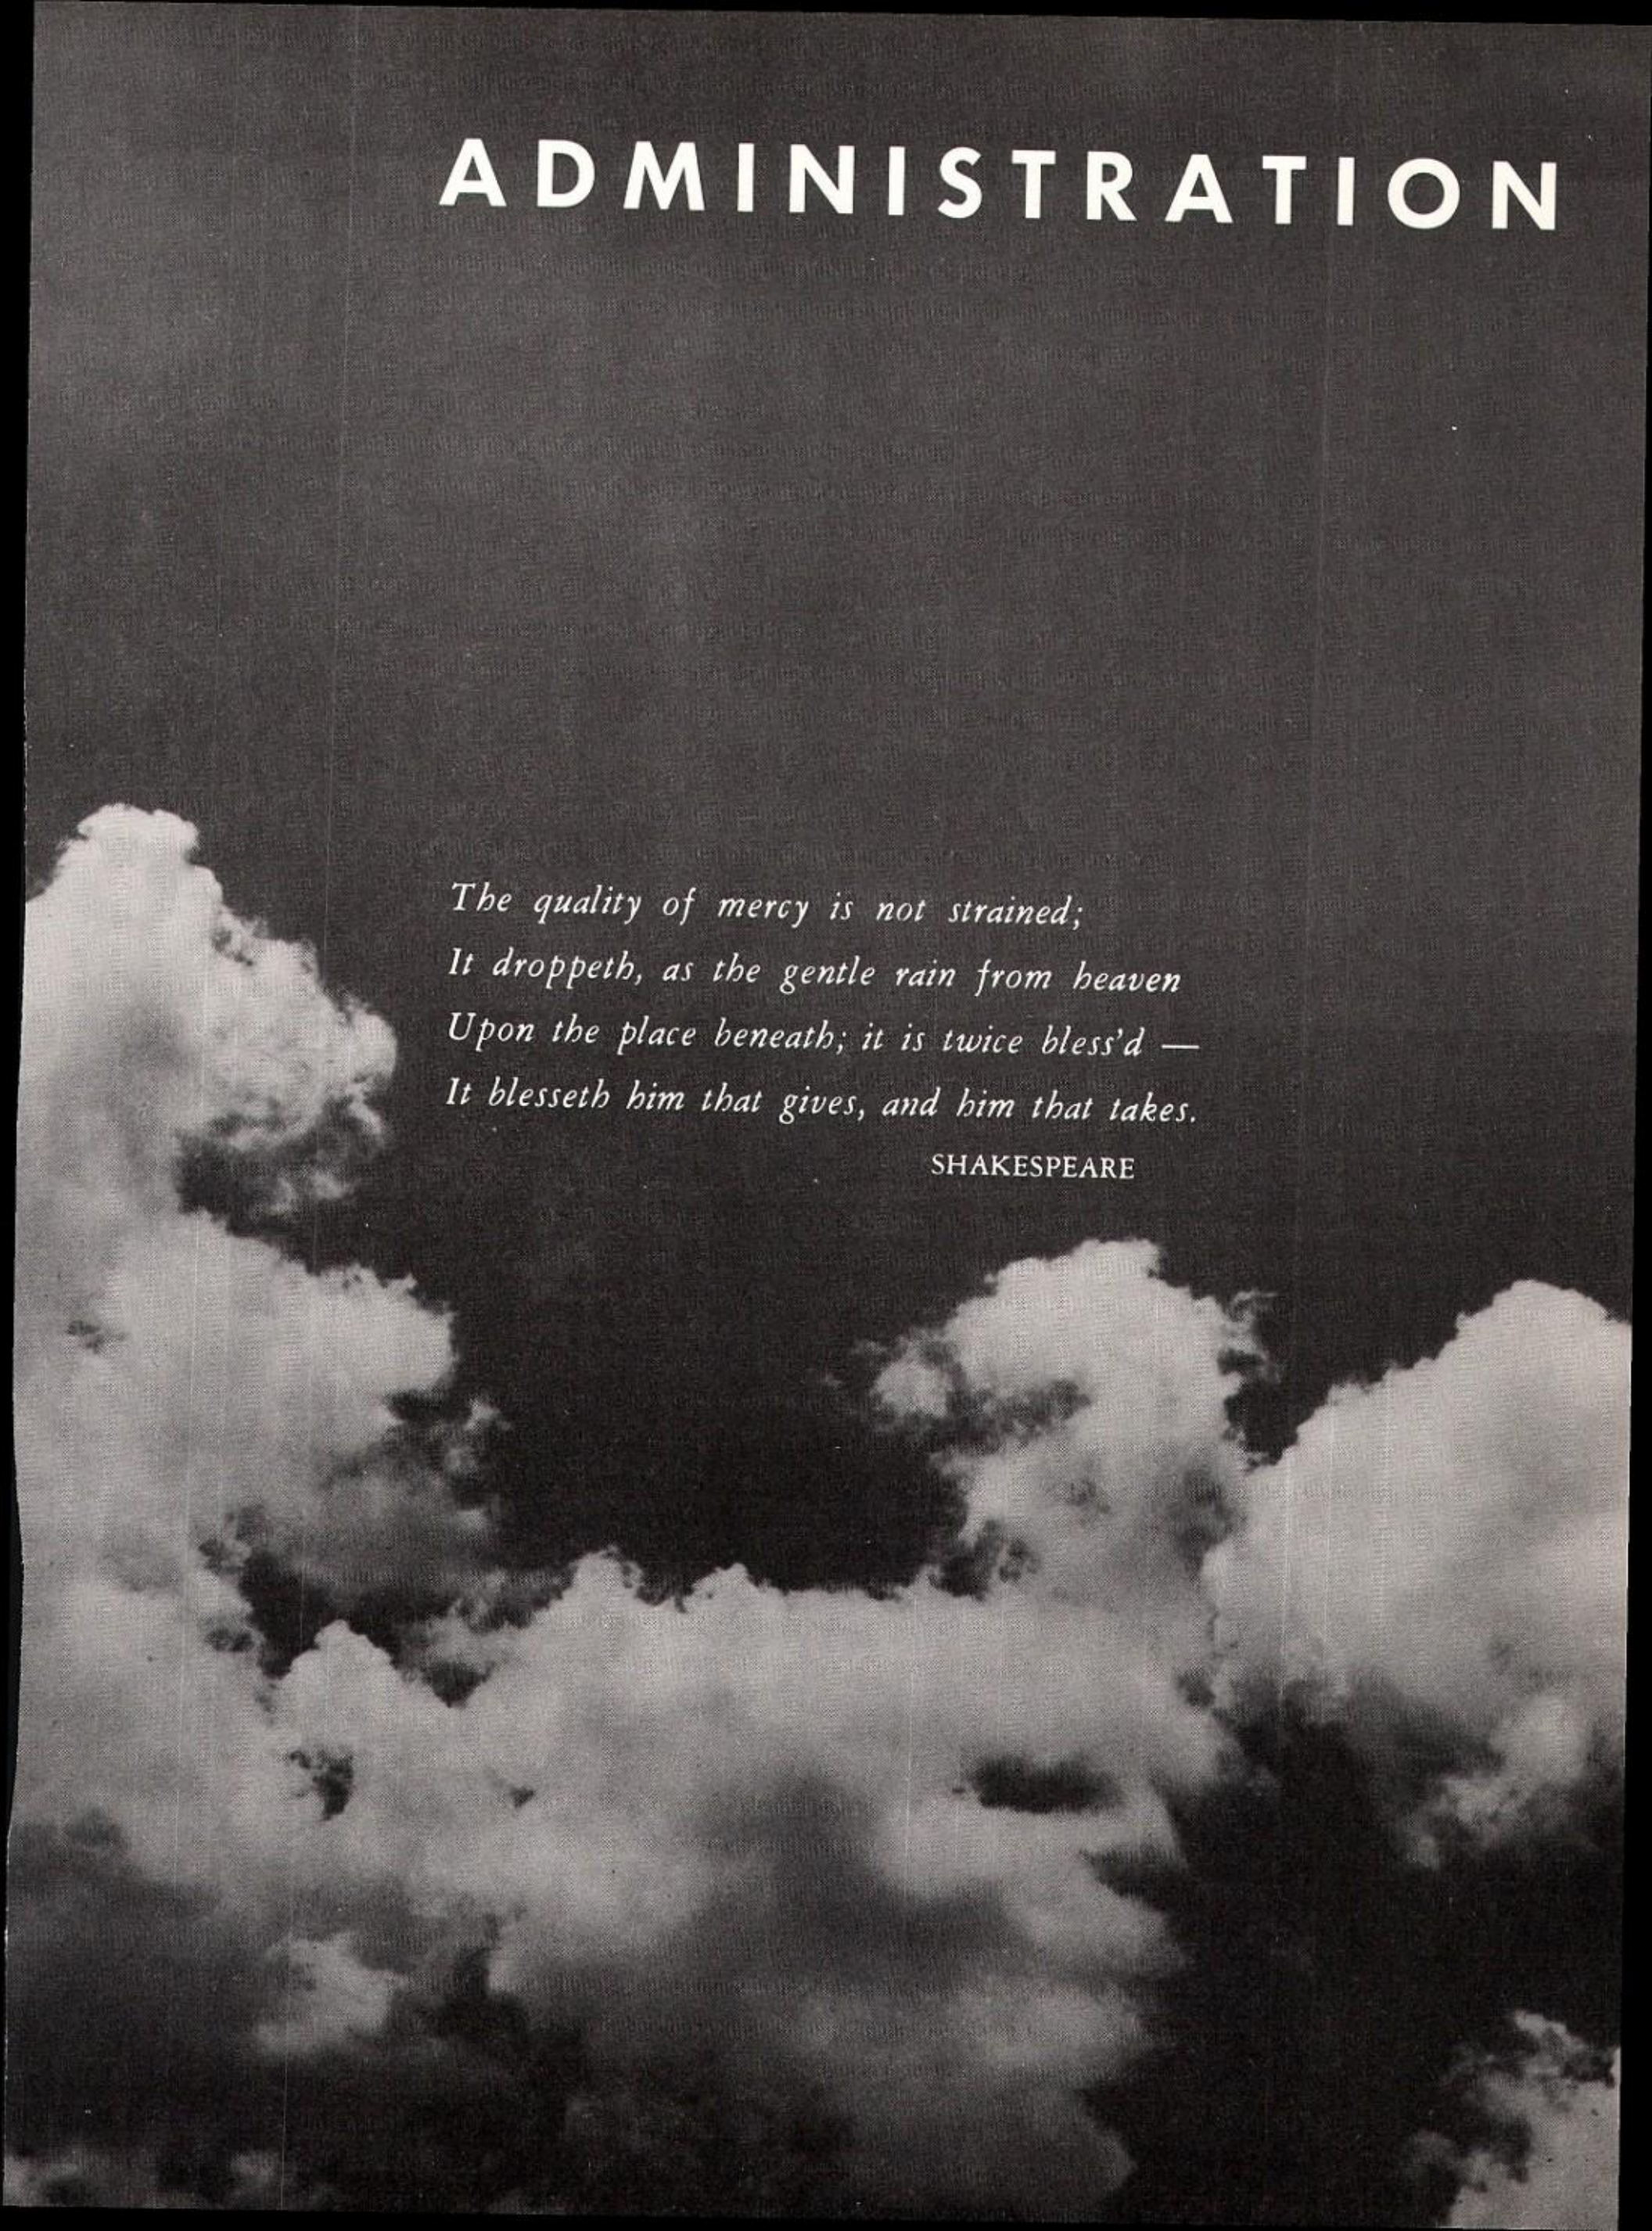
ADMINISTRATION



The quality of mercy is not strained;
It droppeth, as the gentle rain from heaven
Upon the place beneath; it is twice bless'd —
It blesseth him that gives, and him that takes.

History of the Class of 1958

Alas! Twelve long years ago one of the most contaminated groups that ever forced its way through the doors of Otego Central School began a reign unequaled in the annuals of the school. Our initial teacher was Mrs. Hamilton, who taught us about many of the wild animals that were running around at that time.

Mrs. Haynes was our teacher as we continued our journey into Second Grade. Sam Jackson, better known as "Handsome Sampson" joined us during this period.

Through the Third Grade, we were guided along by Miss Jester. We learned some about arithmetic, reading, and spelling in her class.

Onward into the Fourth Grade and finally into the Fifth Grade we marched, picking up along the way "Joe" Veen, the greatest window-smasher and teacher-scarer this side of Kalamazoo. Mrs. Tuttle, our efficient and quiet Fifth Grade teacher, but our guardian, also. During our stay in this grade, Larry, "Smiley" Utter and "Switchblade" Kathy joined our masses.

Miss O'Brien was blessed with us in the Eighth Grade. Since she was Irish, we tested her allegiance every March 17 by wearing orange.

A rowdy and boastful group we were as we marched along into the Ninth Grade. Mr. Sears, a well-liked and intriguing teacher cooled us off and became our class advisor. During this era, Marty Thorsland and Ken Fredenburg, better known around the school as "MADS" began decorating the school's blackboards with idiotic faces and pictures.

For our Junior Year, we planned for almost a half a year to have everything just right for the night of the Junior Prom. We chose our theme to be the "Isle of Capri" and the "Four Coachmen" supplied the music. Frank Burnside and Kathy Utter were chosen as King and Queen. The court for the queen was Sylvia Burchhardt and Priscilla Crawford. The King's Pages were Bruce Greene and Bill Groves. Junior Marshals for the class of '57 were Jan Hotaling, Martin Thorsland, Ernie Fankhouser, and Sam Jackson.

"Heap Big Cake", our Senior Play was a huge success. It was directed by Mrs. Groves and it provided a substantial amount of money for the Senior trip.

Thus ends my account of the Histroy of the Class of 1958. We are now up to the present. We will never forget our Senior year and the Senior Trip to New York City and Washington, D. C. With the urging and advice of Mr. Bonner, our Senior Class Advisor, we hope to graduate and to pass out into the world as mature young men and women.

To the Juniors the Senior Class leaves its pesty ways and broken lockers. To the Sophomores we leave the strength to endure the next two years. To the Freshmen we leave the thought that nothing is more fun than your next three years will be. Work hard, it's worth it! To Mr. Bonner we leave a new Toupee and a bottle of Geritol. To the school we leave our thanks for an excellent education and for memories of the best years of our lives. We've enjoyed it. To Mrs. "D." we leave our thanks for her help and advice.

And it must follow, as the night the day,
